

UMD INSTITUTE FOR GOVERNMENTAL SERVICE AND RESEARCH

- TITLE: Assistant Research Professor
- CATEGORY: Full-time temporary non-tenured faculty (40 hours per week), 12-month, renewable appointment
- SALARY: Commensurate with qualifications and experience
- RESPONSIBILITIES: The Institute for Governmental Service and Research (IGSR), a dynamic, multi-faceted organization dedicated to the University of Maryland's public service mission, seeks a research professional who will engage in the acquisition and conduct of research and technical assistance projects designed to inform policy and improve the lives of Marylanders. The IGSR team comprises experienced researchers from various fields, as well as graduate and undergraduate research assistants. Opportunities exist to contribute to the Institute's portfolio in policy and program areas including: public health and safety, criminal and social justice, health information technology, sustainability, community engagement, leadership and governance, survey research, and strategic planning. The successful applicant will be interested in advancing a research agenda related to IGSR's mission, securing project funding, and disseminating results within and outside academia.
- BENEFITS: The University of Maryland offers an extensive benefits package including health insurance, retirement, paid time off, and tuition remission.
- MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Doctoral degree in public policy or administration, behavioral or social science, evaluation or quantitative methods. Excellent oral, written, data analysis, and interpersonal skills.
- APPLICATIONS: Please send resume, letter of interest, and names and telephone numbers of three professional references to igsr@umd.edu, with subject "ARP position." Direct any questions to: Dr. Richard Engstrom, IGSR Associate Director, at rengstro@umd.edu.

The University of Maryland is an equal opportunity affirmative action employer.
Minority and women candidates are encouraged to apply.